DIFFERENT SIGNS. A BRIGHTER TOMORROW.

Red Flags

SIGNS TO WATCH FOR

Little or no parent collaboration

Poor communication or slow follow-up

One-size-fits-all treatment

Focus on compliance over the child's needs

No clear goals or progress updates

Staff seem undertrained or unsupported

Ignores assent, comfort, or dignity

High turnover with little consistency

Green Flags

POSITIVE SIGNS TO LOOK FOR

Family-centered and collaborative

Clear, respectful communication

Individualized treatment plans

Focus on meaningful skill building

Goals are explained and progress is shared

Staff receive supervision and training

Respects the child's assent and well-being

Ethical, compassionate, and professional care

The right ABA team should support both the child and the family.

REAL PARTNERSHIP. BRIGHTER POSSIBILITIES.
